School Dance Policies and Procedures

SECURITY & CHAPERONES

Client understands and agrees that SDZWA shall not provide, and is not obligated to provide, security guards, security patrols, private police, or any other type of security services (collectively, "Security Services") for the Event as a part of this Agreement. SDZWA's sole obligation with respect to any Security Services contracted by Client shall be to reasonably cooperate with Client's designated Security Services provider while on the Premises during the Event.

Client assumes the responsibility to provide, at Client's sole cost and expense, any such Security Services as SDZWA may require in connection with Client's use of the Premises for the Event, and Client assumes all risk in connection with any failure to provide (or not to adequately provide) Security Services on the Premises. Client shall make all such arrangements as may be appropriate to ensure that the Event is conducted in a safe, lawful, and orderly manner, without damage to or loss of any real or personal property, without injury to any person, and without disturbance or annoyance to the Premises or SDZWA's guests and patrons.

Security: At a minimum, Client shall be required to provide One (1) Security Services personnel, as licensed pursuant to the then current laws and regulations of the State of California, per every 100 students anticipated to attend the Event at the Premises. Client's contracted Security Services provider shall contact SDZWA's security department (with such contact being provided by SDZWA) one week prior to the Event date to review and confirm the following: 1. Date and time of the Event, 2. Confirmed time of arrival of the Security Services personnel, 3. Number of Security Services personnel contracted by Client and 4. Review of the Client's and Security Services provider's requisite insurance documentation. On the Event date, the Security Services provider shall check-in with SDZWA's security department at least one hour prior to the Event start time. Security Services personnel are required to be uniformed or otherwise distinctly recognizable. Under no circumstance shall Client's Security Services personnel possess a firearm or weapon of any kind while providing Security Services on the Premises. If Licensed Security Services personnel are not present by the Event's start time, SDZWA reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to delay the start of the Event or cancel the Event outright. If the Event is canceled due to Client's non-compliance with the Security Services requirements set forth herein, no refunds of fees paid herein will be provided.

Chaperones: For all events involving attendance by students of any age, SDZWA requires that the hosting school provide no less than one adult (age 21+) chaperone for every 50 guests/students. Notwithstanding, SDZWA reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to increase the number of chaperones required for a given event. Furthermore, a minimum and maximum number of chaperones may be established by SDZWA's Event Coordinator. Any Admission fee for chaperones shall be waived by SDZWA provided the names of such chaperones are provided to SDZWA's Event Coordinator at least ___ days before the Event date.

Client hereby agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold SDZWA harmless with respect to any loss, claim or cause of action (including reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs) asserted against SDZWA due to the acts, omissions or inadequacies of Client's Security Services provider or Security Services provided.

Additionally, SDZWA shall in no way be deemed to have warranted the efficiency of Client's designated Security Services provider or any of its security personnel, services, procedures, or equipment, and SDZWA shall not be liable in any manner for the failure of any such security personnel, services, procedures, or equipment to prevent or control anyone suspected of personal injury, property damage, or any other malicious conduct in, on, or around the Premises during the Event. Client expressly agrees that the delivery or failure to deliver such Security Services by Client's designated Security Services provider shall not create a standard of liability for SDZWA.

POWER

All power requirements must be on file in the Events Coordinator office prior to event date. Extensive power needs are subject to additional charges. Thematic lighting is not included.

DEPOSIT and PAYMENTS

An initial, non-refundable deposit of full food and beverage minimum is required along with a signed contract to book any facility. If event is within 2 months of booking, 100% of projected bill due at the time of signing a sales agreement.

The deposit is applicable towards the total charge for the Event. An additional deposit of the total projected bill (less the initial deposit) will be due thirty (30) days from the event date.

The final guest count and remaining balance is due ten (10) business days prior to the event date.

We understand that in many circumstances, tickets for this type of event remain on sale past this deadline. In order to accommodate the likely increase in guest count; payment due will include final guaranteed guest count plus estimated ticket sales.

Estimated ticket sales will be determined by the Event Coordinator and Client Contact. Guests above and beyond the guaranteed guest count plus estimated ticket sales will not have access to enter Zoo/Safari Park grounds unless payment is received in full prior to the event.

Preferred Payment method is by Credit Card or Purchase Order with the District Office. Other payment types may be approved by Sales Representative.

SERVICE CHARGES AND TAXES

SDZWA does not apply a Service Charge or Gratuity. Applicable Sales Tax will be added to all food, beverage, service and rental items.
